LINUXFEST discussion:

The Engineering Club has asked for other clubs to donate money for their yearly weather balloon launch. They need a total of 200 dollars. Another club has donated 100 dollars to them and there was a motion put forward for the AT Club to donate the rest of the money that they need. The vote was put forward and had voted for the motion to pass. The Engineering club has also been invited to have a table at Linuxfest on May 9th, 2015 for their club and they accepted but only for a few hours.

Brady brought up the idea of having action figure balloons for Linuxfest for each room that we are using so that the rooms are easier to find. He also brought up the idea of calling the rooms 'the batman room'. These are all easier ways to be able to give directions/ navigate the buildings and for the public to identify that they are in the correct room. The balloons will cost about 175 for everything needed and six balloons. The motion was passed.

Shaun Moeller asked if the information that needed to be turned in for the A-frame boards had been turned in and it hasn't been yet, so he is working on that as well as some talk about having poster boards up for people to follow as well.

Shaun Moeller asked to see all newly appointed officers for their contact information afterwards and then adjourned the meeting.
